MAYOR'S MESSAGE

Greetings Duvall!

Wow, this year is flying by fast. We are already nearly halfway through the year. Duvall Days marks the true beginning of summer events in town and this year I am incredibly pleased that by July the City will be the owners of a brand new stage to use for community events.

Thanks to the fundraising efforts by the Duvall Cultural Commission and Kass Holdeman, a 2018 budget appropriation from the Duvall City Council, funding from the Washington State Legislature and more, the City's aging stage has been replaced. The new stage will make its debut this summer and provide the opportunity for decades of entertainment for our community.

SummerStage will be better than ever with this new addition and we look forward to celebrating this new community asset during the concerts this summer.

Summer also marks the beginning of the City's budget process. This year is the first time we will be developing a biennial budget, or a two-year budget. This will conclude the seemingly never ending cycle of budget work for staff and in the long run increase our transparency further.

Staff is working on the schedule and policies necessary to make this big shift and council held a retreat to learn more about the process in mid-May. All budget meetings are open to the public and we strongly encourage you to attend.

We hope that this new process will save taxpayer money, ensure staff has more time to work on community priorities, increase transparency and in the long-term increase public participation in the process.

Finally, I would like to extend a warm welcome to our newest councilmember, Mike Remington. Councilmember Remington was appointed on a 4-2 vote to fill the vacancy left by councilmember Becky Nixon's retirement. He had a long career in the fire service, is a 9-year resident of Duvall and most recently served on the Planning Commission. We look forward to working with him.

I hope you have a safe, happy June.

Regards,

Amy Ockerlander
Mayor

KUDOS KORNER

City Administration covered the May 2018 Kudos Kards at our All Staff Meeting this month. While several employees were specifically recognized, the amazing theme was that the community recognizes that you, all of you, go the extra mile. You go the extra mile everyday in everything you do...it is noticed and it is appreciated that you as a staff and team care about your jobs, care about your peers and care deeply about this city.
