Mayor Amy Ockerlander Appointed to Serve on National League of Cities' Transportation and Infrastructure Services (TIS) Committee

Mayor Amy Ockerlander of Duvall, Washington has been appointed to the National League of Cities (NLC) 2021 TIS Federal Advocacy Committee. Mayor Ockerlander was appointed to a one-year term and will provide strategic direction and guidance for NLC's federal advocacy agenda and policy priorities. The appointment was announced by NLC President Kathy Maness, Councilmember, Lexington, South Carolina.

Mayor Ockerlander noted, "with a state highway running through the City of Duvall and rapid housing growth in communities that surround us; being at the table to discuss Federal Infrastructure funding and policy will be critical to achieving our local transportation goals. I am excited for the opportunity to join with the NLC in its efforts to help our communities."

As a committee member, Ockerlander will play a key role among a diverse group of local leaders in shaping NLC's policy positions and advocating on behalf of America's cities and towns before Congress, with the administration and at home.

"Our federal advocacy committees are the voices of what's happening on the ground in our communities," said Kathy Maness, councilmember of Lexington, South Carolina, and President of the National League of Cities (NLC). "I am proud to have Mayor Ockerlander join NLC's Transportation and Infrastructure Services committee on behalf of her residents. Together with a team of local leaders from around the country, we will work to solve the most pressing challenges facing our communities."
